Conference and Justice For All

Lee Brown, Ph.D.
Police Chief, Houston, Texas

Lee Brown, Ph.D., Chairman of the National Advisory Commission on Racial Minorities and Criminal Justice, will be a keynote speaker at the upcoming conference.

Criminal Justice & Racial Minorities

"...AND JUSTICE FOR ALL: A Conference on Criminal Justice and Racial Minorities," to take place March 4th and 5th, Friday and Saturday, at Seattle University, will offer the community and criminal justice agencies the opportunity to explore the issue of racial disproportionate representation in Washington's Criminal Justice System, to propose recommendations for change and to create a statewide network.

MARCH 4-5, 1983
SEATTLE UNIVERSITY
KEYNOTE SPEAKER, LEE BROWN
HOUSTON POLICE CHIEF.

Washington State has the nation's highest incarceration rate of blacks. Minorities in the state are incarcerated at a rate of 3 times as much as whites. Blacks are incarcerated 10 times the rate of their state population.

In response to the disproportionate representation of racial minorities in the criminal justice system in Washington State a statewide conference will feature Lee Brown and Senator George Fleming. Lee-Brown, Ph.D., is the Houston, Texas Police Chief, and Chairman of the National Minority Advisory Council on Crime Criminal Justice. Notoriety came with Lee Brown's handling of the missing black youth incidents in Atlanta, Georgia. Senator George Fleming will address the state perspective on the issue of racial disparity.

Faye Wattleton—President of Planned Parenthood Federation of America

PLANNED PARENTHOOD'S TENTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Family planning issues of the '80's will be the focus of Planned Parenthood of Pierce County's Tenth Anniversary Celebration on Monday, February 28, at the Pantages.

"It was the issue of affordable, confidential family planning services for minors which led to the founding of the local Planned Parenthood affiliate," recalls Bil Moss Lombard, agency Executive Director who has been with Planned Parenthood of Pierce County's commitment to providing affordable, confidential services to minors remains unchanged," asserts Ms. Lombard.

Monday evening's program will feature Faye Wattleton, President of Planned Parenthood Federation of America. Ms. Wattleton, one of the nation's foremost spokeswomen for reproductive rights will address the issues of teenage pregnancy, confidential services to minors and reproductive freedom during the 6:00 p.m. program. Tickets for the event, which include a 5:00 p.m. reception in the Pantages foyer, are $10 and may be obtained by telephoning the Planned Parenthood office at 572-2187.

Ms. Wattleton will arrive in Tacoma straight from Chicago where she will appear as a guest on the "Phil Donahue Show" that morning. Her busy schedule, which includes an appearance on KING-TV's "Northwest Today Show" on Tuesday, March 1, is typical of the energetic chief executive of the nation's largest voluntary health agency. Named one of the "80 Women to Watch in the '80's" by Ms. magazine, Ms. Wattleton is, at age 37, the youngest person, the first women and the first black to serve as president of the Federation.

WNG's Dearborn Announces Retirement

William B. Dearborn, Vice President of the Southern Division of Washington Natural Gas Co., will retire after nearly 34 years of service to the company, effective March 1, 1983.

Dearborn has been active in the Tacoma business community since 1969. He has been active in many Tacoma area business and civic organizations including: Tacoma Executives Association, United Good Neighbors, Tacoma Rotary Club, Tacoma Better Business Bureau and the Tacoma area Chamber of Commerce.

He has served on the boards of United Way of Pierce County, Better Business Bureau of Tacoma, the Pierce County Chapter of the American Diabetes Assoc. and as representative from Pierce County on the board of United Way of Washington.

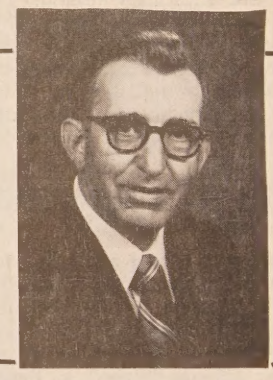
Administration Urged to Focus on Equal Educational Opportunity

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights on December 7 urged the Reagan Administration to get the Federal government back on the road to equal opportunity. In two statements, the Commission accused the Administration of both budget and policy retreats from the nation's commitment to provide a quality integrated education for society's least privileged.

The Commission said that severe budgetary cuts at all educational levels and the absence of guarantees for equitable participation in the new black grant approach now being taken in elementary and secondary education will "undermine the fragile gains made by the least privileged in our society."

The Commission Statement on School Desegregation examines government policies and actions and discusses three controversial issues surrounding school desegregation: quality education, busing and white flight. The Commission said that the time, energy and public funds spent opposing school desegregation should be spent implementing an effective school desegregation plan and enriching education programs.

Fred I. Nelson—Promoted to Division Manager of Wash. Natural Gas



Fred I. Nelson has been promoted to division manager of the Southern Division of Washington Natural Gas Company effective March 1, 1983.

In 1967 he was promoted to supervisor of construction and maintenance in Seattle and became the general superintendent of the southern division in 1975.

Nelson is a member of the Tacoma Kiwanis Club, Tacoma/Pierce County Chamber of Commerce and the Lakewood Chamber of Commerce. He has served on the Daffodil Board and as an advisor for Junior Achievement. Professionally, he is a member of the Pacific Coast Gas Association and received the "Distribution Achievement Award" from the American Gas Association in 1977.

WINNERS OF THE BLACK HISTORY ESSAY CONTEST

There was a good turnout for the Ashberry Cultural Club's annual Black History Essay Contest which was held on Saturday, February 19, 1983. Among those participating were students from the Bethlehem Baptist Church Sunday School Junior Department, local junior high schools. Everyone was proud as the leaders of tomorrow shared their views and thoughts on this year's theme, "What Equality Means to Me."

This year's winners were Winnie Farmer; Lukia Neal; and Kristi Croskey. The winners received a $100.00 Savings Bond and a $50.00 Savings Bond was also awarded to the third place contestant.

OPTIONAL ENROLLMENT TIME

It's optional enrollment time in Tacoma Public Schools for sixth and ninth grade students. That means that between March 1 and 25, parents who want their children to attend a school other than the one in their neighborhood may go to their school principal and fill out a form requesting the school of their choice.

Students will be notified of approval or disapproval of their request in mid-May.

Incoming kindergarten students are also eligible to participate, but won't need to begin the process until the official kindergarten registration dates of May 4-5.

Parents who wish more information may contact their school principal or the office of general administration, at 593-6670.

UPS STUDENTS OBSERVE BLACK HISTORY MONTH

"Where Do We Go From Here?" is the theme for activities at the University of Puget Sound in observance of Black History Month. Among events sponsored by the UPS Black Student Union are a talent show, an appearance by black activist Dick Gregory and an evening of films.

Political activist and comedian Dick Gregory speaks at 8 PM, Thursday, February 24, at UPS's Kilworth Chapel. Admission is $3.50.

Gregory's past accomplishments cannot be neatly categorized. He began his career as a comedian in the late 1950s, succeeding in a white-dominated industry. Gregory was a familiar face at '60s demonstrations, using his draw as a comedian to boost human rights actions. He made headlines in Washington state in 1966 and 1968 when he joined the Nisqually Indians' protest over fishing rights treaties. Participation in the 1968 protest landed Gregory into the Thurston County jail, where he fasted throughout his 45-day stay.

Gregory has recorded a number of albums, and written nine books, including his autobiography Nigger, The Shadow that Scares Me and Dick Gregory's Natural Diet for People Who Eat: Cookin' With Mother Nature.

Gregory is co-sponsored by the Black Student Union and the UPS Lectures Committee.

Two films, "Black Woman" and "Black History: Lost, Stolen or Strayed" will be shown consecutively beginning at 5:30 p.m., Friday, February 25th. The films, which are free and open to the public, will be in the Bons Lounge of the UPS Student Union Building at 15th and Lawrence Streets.

"Black Women" explores the meaning of feminism within the black culture. "Black History: Stolen, Lost or Strayed" examines distortions and biases in "traditional" black history.

Tickets for Dick Gregory's talk are available at the Tacoma Bon or from the UPS information booth in the Student Union Building.

For more information, call 756-3148.

PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION PROCESS CONTINUES AT TCC

The selection of Tacoma Community College's next president moved a step closer to completion this week when the 12-person screening committee narrowed the field of applicants to 14.

A total of 55 applications were received by the January 31 deadline from candidates across the country. A national search was conducted during December and January to seek the best qualified candidates.

The board will contact the successful candidate following an April 26 executive session and will announce their choice for president at the regular board meeting April 28. The president will begin duties July 1.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION NEWS

The Veterans Administration will advance $3 million to the Centers for Disease Control to launch an Agent Orange study, according to an inter-agency agreement.

Veterans receiving compensation for service-connected disability may be eligible for vocational rehabilitation counseling benefits under Veterans Administration programs, according to VA Administrator Harry N. Walters.

The VA provides evaluation and counseling to assist in development of a comprehensive rehabilitation plan designed to suit the disabled veteran's particular needs.

SIXTH ANNUAL MULTI-MEDIA ART SHOW

PROVERBS

Chapter 16

The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the Lord.

All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits.

Commit thy work unto the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established.

The Lord hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

Righteous lips are the delight of kings and they love him that speaketh right.

The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

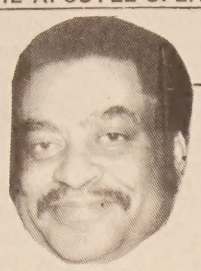
THE APOSTLE SPEAKS



THE NATURAL LIKENESS OF THE FIRST CHIEF APOSTLE
SERIES #1 PART 2

Peter is transformed by his companionship and association with Jesus. Peter was a orthodox Jew, and he became a bigamist and segregationist when it came to having fellowship or socializing with other races and nationalities, Peter showed an indifference.

But later on during his transformation period after he had received the HolyGhost, on the day of Pentecost.

ACTS 2nd CHP. VS. 4
ACTS 2nd CHP. VS. 14.

And they were all filled with the HolyGhost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

He became a new Peter standing up boldly speaking to the different races and nationalities.

Peter along with the other diciples were amazed and confound because of Jesus being born into a Orthodox Jewish family out of the tribe of Judah, and the strict tribal customs were observed although some had a bigamist and segregated nature The diciples didn't understand why Jesus spoke in St. John 4th Chapter and said he must need go through Samaritan.

St. John 4th Chp. 4th VS. & 27th VS.

And he must needs go through Samaria.
And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, what seekest thou? or, why talkest thou with her?

ADULT TRAINING AT DDD INSTITUTIONS

Only a few years ago, adult residents at Division of Development Disabilities residential habilitation centers had very little opportunity for training. But in recent years, in accordance with federal Title XIX guidelines, each adult resident has been provided with an individual habilitation plan, and adult training programs have been improved at all of the facilities.

The new programs have also resulted in a change in organizational structure for each of the facilities, with the implementation of a system of units called PATs (Program Area Teams).

At Fircrest School, each PAT works with residents of varying degrees of retardation who therefore have different habilitation and training needs. Each PAT functions as an entity and is administered by a director who has a full complement of attendant counselors, plus a physician, nurse, psychologist, recreation leader, communication specialist, and social worker.

A separate adult training component at Fircrest serves residents over 21 from all five teams.

The Children's Theatre is the newest division within the Metropolitan Park District of Tacoma.

Ticket prices are $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children 16 years and under.

TO BE EQUAL

BUDGET BLUEPRINT FOR MISERY

The Administration's newly released fiscal 1984 Budget is a prescription for intensifying the misery in the land. It would retard economic recovery while forcing more pain on the poor.

America's greatest need is for jobs and job training. That's the only way to get people spending and buying again. But this Budget actually proposes to cut federal job programs by $400 million.

Hunger is again a problem, but this Budget plans to cut food stamps.

Poverty is growing, but this Budget plans to cut welfare.

Add the hidden cuts caused by inflation, and our government wants to reduce the amount it spends to help poor people survive by almost twenty percent.

This Budget violates all standards of fairness and decency. It would drive more people into poverty while inflicting wounds on our already stricken economy. It demonstrates callousness to the victims of economic Depression and gross neglect of our society's deepest needs.

Perhaps the most disturbing thing about this Budget is the absence of public indignation. The media is actually calling it a compromise budget. Congressional leaders say they can work with it.

Such complacency reflects a failure of spirit; a retreat from the vision of an America that is prosperous and just, that spends its energies creating opportunities, not creating more inequality.

BITS & PIECES

By Roger O.

BITS & PIECES

I'm back: Question, Who is "Readymade Family"? "Readymade Family" is a very talented group of eight local professional musicians, with over 14 years experience with a strong musical foundation. They performed at the McChord Sky lark Service Club February 11 & 12 to a pleasing audience of young people, and did an outstanding job.

I had a chance to attend a function by the "Progressive Black Educators of Tacoma Public Schools Saturday night and really had a nice time. Disco music was provided by "Jamming Green", a Tacoma D.J. "Green" will be in Bremerton March 11 and 12 at the Hickey House, and then at the Masonic Temple, 1702 "K" St. March 19th during a benefit for the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club to assist in raising funds for their annual basketball and awards banquet.

See you next week.

BLAZING FINGERS

How do you shake the midwinter blues? Eat a pineapple? Take a cruise? Or do you just hibernate like a bear? Well why not try working up a sweat by participating in Blazing Fingers?

Blazing Fingers is a typing contest sponsored by the Variety Club of the Pacific Northwest and American Office Interiors. Prizes like a round trip air transportation and hotel accommodations to San Juan, Puerto Rico, courtesy of Eastern Airlines, and a 19" Goldstar Color Television will be awarded to the one who collects the most money AND the one who types the fastest.

Entry forms are available now at American Office Interiors and pledges must be secured by March 1st, at which time entries for the contest will close.

The top winners of each category will appear on the KIRO-TV/Variety Club Telethon March 12 and 13th.

All proceeds go to the Variety Club Children's Charities.

STIFFER PENALTIES FOR DRUNK DRIVERS?

Two Democratic representatives, Bill Smitherman of Tacoma and Paul Zellinsky of Bremerton, have sponsored bills that would stiffen the penalties for drunk drivers while improving the state's alcohol safety programs.

STATE OF THE UNION ANALYSIS
(PART 2 of 2 PARTS)

Yet, in the last quarter of 1982, our gross national product fell to a negative annual growth rate of minus 2.5 percent, while unemployment is not expected to drop below 10 percent soon.

You see the growing inhumanity our government supports in South Africa, in the Middle East, and in Central and South America, as well as ignores at home. Yet, Reagan calls for more power to kill rather than to heal.

The peoples of Black Africa and Central and South America, especially, are being economically and culturally re-colonialized. Likewise, the status of Black Americans, as compared to that of whites, has steadily worsened in the last three years.

As an example of growing inhumanity at home, the United States government has deliverately slowed-down desegregation of schools and affirmative action for equal job opportunities.

Of even greater significance, the per capita income of Black Americans is decreasing, as a ratio of that of whites. During this period, Black unemployment doubled that of whites.

The President, as well as Congress, should treat our system, not merely the symptoms. We can no longer rely on individual greed to meet our collective need. More co-operation rather than competition must be engendered in our psyche; and more national economic planning and humane government responsibility are necessary, now! The President should prescribe a different medicine -- not merely an increase or decrease in our dosage of the same.
